Talk: 'Copenhagen - Last Chance to Save the World?' Thursday 12th November 7pm FREE!

December 2009 will be remembered as the year world leaders met in Copenhagen to work out an international treaty to solve the climate crisis we are in. Some are saying that these talks represent our last hope, that we have to put everything we can into getting a deal, that without an agreement we are doomed.

Rebecca Willis, Vice Chair of the UK Sustainable Development Commission, and Dr Sonny Khan, Chair of South Lakes Action on Climate Change, lead this discussion to answer the question: Can we rely on governments to solve the climate crisis?

Venue: Shakespeare Centre, Kendal

'How to do a Home Action Plan and Audit' Tuesday 8th December 7pm – 9pm £3

Learn how to monitor the power, water and waste usage in your own home and then make an action plan to reduce your bills and reduce the impact on the environment.
